PRACTICE PROFILE

Matthew is recognised by Chambers & Partners as a leading junior on the Northern Circuit, being praised for his "meticulously detailed" approach to litigation.

His capacity for hard work, eye for detail and skilled advocacy have secured Matthew's reputation for consistently delivering outstanding paper and court work. This, coupled with his friendly and approachable manner, attracts instructions from a broad range of loyal clients.

Matthew has developed a high level of expertise in landlord and tenant matters, especially housing litigation, where he specialises in advising and acting for local authorities and registered social landlords in respect of possessions, nuisance neighbour cases, ASBOs, ASBIs and committals.
