PRACTICE PROFILE

William enjoys a mixed personal injury practice which involves regularly acting for both Claimants and Defendants at trial and at the interlocutory stages of litigation. He aims to engender a team dynamic and an approachable working relationship with all of his professional clients.

William has experience in a wide variety of personal injury cases, including:

- Road Traffic Accidents
- Credit Hire Claims
- Low Velocity Impact Cases
- Fraud
- Employers' Liability
- Tripping and Slipping Cases
- Highways Act Cases

William provides drafting and advisory services in relation to all areas of personal injury law. He strives to provide his solicitor clients with paperwork that is prompt, user-friendly and of a high quality.

William also has experience in representing interested parties in inquests. In particular, he was led by Christopher Kennedy QC in the high profile inquest concerning the deaths arising out of the Dreamspace incident which occurred in Chester-Le-Street in July 2006.
