Profile

Kathrine Mallory specialises exclusively in the field of personal injury litigation acting for both Claimants and Defendants

Kathrine receives instructions in both Fast Track and Multi-Track matters in all aspects of personal injury litigation and has a growing practice in clinical negligence cases. Kathrine is also a member of the Travel Law team.

Kathrine combines a professional service in a friendly and approachable manner. She is noted for her sensitive approach towards clients whilst at the same time providing firm and clear advice. Kathrine is happy to advise in conference and on paper. She further offers a high quality drafting service whilst endeavouring to provide a quick turn-around of papers.

Kathrine has regularly appeared on behalf of Appellants at the Criminal Injuries Compensation Appeal Panels to challenge financial awards made by CICA to victims of crimes of violence. She has a full working knowledge of all aspects of the Schemes and has dealt with claims ranging from the more modest awards right up to maximum award cases. She is happy to act in an advisory role prior to an Appeal hearing as well as drafting Financial Schedules/Skeleton Arguments.

Kathrine has acted for various Applicants ranging from police officers who have been assaulted in the course of their employment, victims of historic assault cases involving children (including sexual abuse) and assaults resulting in fractured skull and traumatic brain injury.

She is also keen to develop her practice in Armed Forces cases.

Kathrine Mallory's practice includes:

- Industrial accidents and disease.

- Road traffic cases.
- Employer's Liability cases.
- Highway and Slipping litigation.
- Clinical Negligence
- RTA Insurance Fraud
- Travel Law
- Armed Forces Compensation Scheme
- Criminal injury compensation claims.
- Inquests, predominantly deaths caused in road traffic accidents and fatal accidents at work.

Quotes

I have instructed Kathrine on a number of matters, I have always found her to be very well prepared, always taking clear instructions and always protects the interests of her clients. She has a very good grasp of the issues and I am always confident in her Judgment. I would recommend her advocacy and drafting skills without any hesitation. She is my preferred use of Counsel for hearings in the North West.
