Coercive and Controlling Behaviour in Private Law Children Act Cases

Speakers: Sarah Kilvington and Emily Landale

Sarah Kilvington

Sarah has a reputation as a skilled advocate who will deliver robust advice whilst not losing sight of the need for sensitivity towards lay clients in often very difficult circumstances.

Family:

“Sarah is a tenacious advocate who commands the room. She has an innate ability to persuade others to the benefit of the lay client. She has excellent attention to detail, can grasp exceptionally complex cases and can give the client the reassurance in her abilities and expertise. She is just excellent.”

Legal 500 2023

Family (Northern Bar):

“Sarah’s confidence and ability as an advocate mean you want her to be on your side.”

“She has good client care and phenomenal attention to detail.”

Chambers and Partners 2022

Emily Landale

Emily Landale was called to the Bar in 2018 and completed pupillage in 2019. She displays a confidence and capability beyond her year of call. Emily is recognised for being well prepared, client focused and always approachable.

She has a growing practice in her areas of expertise and is able to bring empathy, sensitivity and strong advocacy to the fore for her clients. Her communication is second to none and she is able to work through vast amounts of paperwork with relative ease. She works hard for her clients and her commitment to them is one of the key reasons she is instructed.
