Profile

Karim undertakes instructions from Claimants and Defendants in equal measure, with his practice encompassing all areas of personal injury, including:

- Employer's liability (accidents at work and stress claims);
- Fatal accidents (claims on behalf of the estate and dependants);
- CICA applications;
- Proceedings in the Coroner's Court;
- Product liability and consumer protection;
- Industrial Disease:
- Road traffic accidents;
- Injuries of the utmost severity
- Claims involving allegations of fraud (such as staged accidents, bogus passenger claims and low velocity impact arguments);
- Public liability (including tripping and slipping claims, highways claims and occupiers' liability);
- Solicitor's negligence matters, particularly those arising out of personal injury claims.

Karim has a keen interest in psychiatric and neurological damage and has cross-examined medical experts in many personal injury cases.

Karim regularly undertakes CFA work. A prompt and efficient turnaround of all paperwork is guaranteed. He also regularly provides seminars to solicitors on all aspects of personal injury litigation and recent developments.
