Profile

Jane Mabon's practice is split between family law and personal injury.

Jane has experience in all areas of family law with an emphasis on private law children work and ancillary relief.

In private law proceedings Jane has received instructions in a wide range of cases for parents, step-parents, grandparents and other extended family members. She regularly acts in protracted contact and residence disputes, many with allegations of physical or sexual abuse, and many involving the instruction of specialist contact agencies and/or expert witnesses.

In ancillary relief proceedings Jane has experience in cases ranging from those involving assets of a fairly modest value to those involving more substantial assets, including properties abroad. She is keen to expand her practice in this area.

Jane's personal injury practice covers all aspects of personal injury litigation. She receives instructions from both Claimants and Defendants and regularly acts for local authorities. Her practice is both court and paper based and she endeavours to provide a fast and efficient turnaround in respect of the latter.

Her practice includes:

- Road traffic accidents (including claims involving allegations of fraud / low velocity impact arguments)
- Tripping and slipping accidents
- Employer's liability cases
- Accidents abroad

- CRU appeals

Jane will accept instructions on a Conditional Fee basis.
